Monkey 4857 rotted away from the inside

People tend to assume that Entrance of the Gladiators by Julius Fučík is what that ever so famous circus clown theme is. And in a way, it is. Nobody would ever argue with you on this fact.
However, if you want to be an unlikable, pedantic jerk, the song actually known to be circus music would be a version composed for American woodwind bands (and later transcribed for fairground organs) titled Thunder and Blazes, published by Louis-Philippe Laurendeau.
Of course, this information is of absolutely no consequence to anyone.

Monkey 4852 was still using a 32-bit computer on January 19, 2038. His house was pulled into the void by the computer.

Monkey 4845 had all of his memories erased, which according to John Locke, means that Monkey 4847 no longer exists.

Monkey 4843 was struck down by the righteous hand of Mr. God after failing to make at least three offerings yearly in the temple.
