XRay Spex - Oh Bondage! Up Yours!

This reminds me of my best friend in high school. She and I would sit outside the athletic office and yell this song at the jocks. We broke quite a few stereotypes because we were the two goth/punk kids that were friends with most of the football team (mostly because we swooned them in song)

Common - The People

*"From Englewood to a single hood in Botswana
I see the I in We my nia, yours is my drama
Standin in front of the judge with no honor
My raps ignite the people like Obama
The karma of the streets is needs and takes
Sometimes we find peace in beats and breaks
Put the bang in the back so the seats can shake
Rebel Cadillac music for the people sake"*
