Basquenlandian spies find out that Catalonia is trying to disrupt the earth's magnetic field, and they shut down the weapon. The Union of the Two Georgias, with its capitals in Tbilisi and Atlanta, declares independence, and in a coup, annexes Tennessee. The Algerbil Alliance recognises the Catgirl Confederation, and the Union of the Two (now three) Georgias buys South Georgia in exchange for Sandwich, Massachusetts and UTG joining the Algerbil Alliance. Sandwich, Massachusetts is fine with this, as they need protection from Fascist Plymouth. Fascist Plymouth retaliates by joining the Asuncion Pact, which now has Paraguay, Laos and Fascist Plymouth. The Catgirl Republic has been invited by the now worried Boblandians to join the Algerbil Alliance. Also in Bobland, Bob the Builder just won the election and is now President of Bobland.

The Catgirl Republic agrees to join the Algerbil Alliance believing Catalonia's path to vengeance against those who wronged it is a dangerous prospect for all life in the Solar System in general. The Republic of Hawai'i, being a close ally with the Catgirl Republic, joins as well.

Meanwhile, the Catgirls continue to develop their urban infrastructure on Mars further. More underground cities are built up with massive tunnels connecting the cities to other underground cities.

Rumors have also begun circulating that the Martian factions on Mars are plotting a second invasion of the Catgirls as they believe that if they grow further then they won't be able to be stopped. Note, these are just rumors. Hopefully...

Oh yeah, the Burrito Republic continues to do things that burritos do. It hosts a festival in Cheyenne, Wyoming for all world leaders to attend.

Then other god was like "nah mate we ain't doin' this ol crap again aight?" And goes back to the present day. Pretty much just resetting the above post so everything we've done doesn't go to waste.

Anyways Bobland, impatient of the time the nation that controls Eastern Brazil is replying, decides to invade said nation, and for some lucky reason Bobland has gained some more guns and resources by an unknown saucer.

United Europe's government becomes angry that Estonia declared independence after Europe had just been humiliated in the previous war against Catalonia and the Burrito Republic. The United European Federation begins positioning troops in Poland, Lithuania, and Latvia in case further action is necessary.

The Burrito Republic decides to benefit from the rising tensions and begins selling weapons to United Europe. The burritos utilize their large industrial manufacturing facilities in Wyoming and their industrial companies in Catalan territories in France, Catalonia, and Norway to ship large amounts of materiel and supplies for the Europeans.

However, at the same time, the Burritos utilize several shell companies to sell weapons to the Estonians. So they're basically profiting off both sides.

Oh yeah, Catalonia joins the Asuncion Pact because they were invited into it. But the Burritos don't join. At least for now.

Kekistan-Persia, after successfully taking over Pakistani Baluchistan, rebels against Kekistan (if that still exists) and renames itself to The Baluch Federal Kingdom. They also try to invade Kekistan but due to terrible mappings, they end up invading the Musandam peninsula on the Arabian peninsula and start a Colony over there. They also try to take over the near-earth asteroid 433 Eros to keep up with everyone invading the space but fail miserably.

The Asteroid 59239 Alhazen now resembles Ibn al Haytham's face, then proceeds to be hurled towards Earth.

The Burrito Republic, Montana and Bashkortostan began their projects of how to get rid of 59239 Alhazen.

The Burrito Republic proposes launching a rocket and dragging the asteroid away using gravitational pull, Montana and Bashkortostan meanwhile, proclaim that they will be building a series of railgun turrets designed to shoot the debris before they hit earth, if the asteroid breaks apart before entering the atmosphere.

This is giving me Ace Combat vibes lol. Context:

https://acecombat.fandom.com/wiki/Ulysses\_1994XF04

Basically, a bunch of the countries in the Ace Combat series built a bunch of railguns to try and obliterate as many pieces of the asteroid as possible. Some countries succeeded. Others...not so much.

Teeny is able to take the northern parts of the Sistan and Baluchistan province of Iran, a ceasefire is immediately introduced with The Baluch Federal Kingdom trying to make Teeny a buffer state between them and Kekistan.
