I've noticed this for a while now. I don't know if it's because I'm on dark mode and you're not, but the black of the "Deutsches Kaiserreich" flag here still shows it's hyphens, as they're coloured white on dark mode, not black

If I may, perhaps you should edit it so that the hyphens are coloured black manually? So it'd be [background=#020202][color=#020202] instead of just the background command. That might help
