Agalloch - Into the Painted Grey

Agalloch's newer songs always have a few sections that are really cool, but they're padded between several minutes of filler and drag on for too long. It's not worth it to me to listen to a 17:00 song just for a couple great moments. Hopefully their new album (comes out next week) will be a return to their old style from their first two albums.

Plodding on with the same general sound can work...with the right kind of music.

Al Qaynah-Ground Zero Pilgrims

Seriously, for any metal fans who like metal with various Middle Eastern influences or anything like that, and don't mind your metal instrumental, you need to give this Afghani metal band a try.

Master of Puppets (the album) by Metallica...
Namely "The Thing That Should Not Be"
wait, how did I get here?

Is it a bad thing that I'm beginning to quite enjoy the Metallica album I'm listening to right now...I really don't want to be sucked into the bottomless chasm of metal and become a metalhead. I'm afraid I'll never come back...
