Nah

The Liamese Empire is a Conservative, Imperialist, Celtic nation with a large Christian population.

P.S. The symbol on my flag is not the triforce, It is supposed to be a symbol of the trinity, the star in the middle represents the Empire.

No, seems rather Boring amirite? But seriously No

Partially inspired by the Third Odyssey mod for EU4, this nation is essentially a Byzantine successor state in South America that has fused together Ancient Greek Religion with Greek Orthodox Christianity. It mixes the aesthetic of Byzantium and Ancient Greece, with very open and liberal social values but with an Imperial Monarchy. NS stats are referenced but are not strictly followed to a T.

No, too violent.

By the way, how can you legally mandate that all citizens own a gun and have about 0.38 weapons per person as of now?

Originally it was associated with hope for global cooperation and peace facilitated through a relatively easy-to-learn auxiliary language with simple grammar and orthography. In fact, its current (nick)name comes from the pseudonym of its inventor, D<sup>ro</sup> Esperanto, meaning Dr. (not as in a medical professional) {One-who-hopes-(now)}. In part due to these original associations, idealistic people are more likely to learn it; but this does not mean that the medium of communication is in and of itself liberal (unless you consider striving for a facilitator for international cooperation/peace to be liberal). (But) even Stalin learned a little bit before denouncing it and the Interhelpanojn because it was a "language of spies".

Guess, I might give it a shot. For a while. After all, I speak Russian, one of their minority languages.

Skyhooked is MT/PMT with a few FT elements. Military is factbook only. NS stats are mostly non canon.
