There is an ancient tradition of assigning high ranking officials "chief mouser" cats and "chief defender" dogs, until they are too old to carry out their duties, at which point they are retired to loving families. The current royal chief mouser is Bravu IV, having caught 75 mice or rats, and the current royal chief defender is Leali III, having, amusingly, barked at 38 (presumably foreign) leaders.

I don't use NS stats, please refer to the factbooks. Terms to use: Cybus, Cybusian, The Infinite Cybusian Empire. Feel free to TG with suggestions, comments, feedback, questions, etc, especially about factbooks.

La Selle is a leader built on the "benevolent" developmental authoritarian dictatorship archetype like Lee Kuan Yew and Paul Kagame. Complete with market reforms, a high economic growth, and overall crackdown on civil and press rights.

* The Japanese Interregnum *

Shikata ga nai (1967)

- It's 1945 and Tokyo is nuked by the Allies and American troops are invading the mainland. Japan surrenders and the Allies victorious but at a heavy cost. Post-war reconstruction did not go well as a nuclear typhoon known as the "First Impact" ravages the island in 1946. Now Japan falls to differing claimant states in 1964 as it struggles to rebuild itself and grapple with the post-war reality of a divided anarchic Japan.

There seems to be no strict and rigid ideology to adhere to: societies only exist while their members mutually benefit.

Nicole Greenwich could be considered an Enlightenment deist; she clearly didn't have a high regard for the Holy Scriptures, but maintained a viewpoint of a Universe ordained by transcending laws.

Trenaka was a state in the HRE, possibly an evolution of Swabians or Bavarians. Although taking up 30% of Germany's population, it not being apart of history seems to not have changed too much as both WW1 and WW2 still happened. Along with this, the Great Depression (which screwed up every nation from USSR to America) only caused the economy to slow rather than tank like most nations.

America kind of fragmented in around 2066 in an "unknown catastrophe" where millions of Americans are dropping dead and governmental services failing... Ahem, coronavirus. Anyway, echoing Wushu's previous comment, it's like the American warlord era but with bits of Fallout Old World Blues mod's warlordism. The Information Age reverted back to the Medieval Age due to lack of economic activity which explains why a post-Texan is larping as a king.
