Is your gf as upset about the decline of historical programming on The History Channel as I am? :(

EDIT: Or the lack of science on Discovery Channel. Can't remember which Ice Truckers is on...

Owww my fingers... That was a short set, but I need more callouses. I'll give it another go in an hour or so maybe :p

Songs I played (and therefore listened to):

1. Chris Cornell - Part Of Me
2. Downface - Alone
3. Everclear - Wonderful
4. Everlast - What It's Like
5. Everlast's parts of Santana - Put Your Lights On

Shiny new guitar's almost holding its tune after a song now :p
Currently listening to Nightwish's "Planet Hell".

Draconian - The Everlasting Scar

That's what, three of their songs I've listed? Looking good, gotta check 'em out in detail :)

But after this song, I think I'll go to bed. 20 hours is long enough to be awake, and I was only up this long waiting on my gorram guitar :p

Nightwish - Wishmaster

History Channel.

Currently listening to Nightwish's "Planet Hell".

Only listened to one song from Chris Cornell. Don't really know Everclear or Downface. Everlast I like some of his stuff, specifically Put Your Lights On.

While I let Pandora come up with its suggestions, anybody else with a similar taste have any suggestions for me?

Have you looked into Kamelot? It's all-male singing, with the exception of a few guests stars (Singer of Epica as one). I wouldn't recommend their old stuff, though. Their old singer was terrible.

🗨 Vampyrceil wrote:

Bah wtf. Pandora put on Disturbed. I like the band, but that's just a completely different type of metal! First thumbs-down on the list...

Then it followed up with what I'm still listening to - Leaves' Eyes' "Elegy". Not thumbs-upping it as it's not what I made the list for, but it's my favourite LE song, so I'll let it play through ☐ Disturbed from what I've heard sounds pretty damn dull and boring. Not really a fan. I think they sound like what my dad and I decided to refer to as "Butt-rock", but "Butt-metal" works too.
