This song is even sadder when you learn what it is about.

50 pages in 17 days. About a 3 page a day average. So about 170 days to get to 500? That's about 2 threads a year ☐

Daft Punk - The Game of Love

Gave into the hype and now I'm listening to it again.

My dad briefly showed me stuff from the new album and most of it sounded boring. A few songs stood out, though.

Doin' It Right and Giorgio by Moroder are great songs. Still on the fence about the rest.

I know the second one you mentioned is one of the one's I thought wasn't bad, but I don't remember what the other one I enjoyed was. Not really a fan of the Doin' It Right one. Dunno, I just don't really care for the robotic-type singing in most of the album.

I don't get why everyone loves Creep by Radiohead so much. Of the songs I've heard, it is probably my least favorite Radiohead song.

All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
