Broad Black Brimmer, by the Wolftones!

There ´s an uniform that ´s hanging in what ´s known as father ´s room

*An uniform so simple in his style
It has no braid of gold or silk no hat with feathered plume
Yet the mother has preserved it all the while
One day she made me try it on, a wish of mine for years
"In memory of your father, son" she said
And when I put the Sam Browne on she was smiling with the tears
As she placed the broad black brimmer on my head*

*It ´s just a broad black brimmer with ribbons frayed and torn
By the careless whisk of many a mountain breeze
An old trench coat that ´s battle stained and worn
And breeches almost threadbare at the knees
A Sam Brown belt with buckle big and strong
A holster that ´s been empty many ´s a day
(BUT NOT FOR LONG!)*

*When men claim Ireland ´s freedom the one who'll choose to lead
Will wear the broad black brimmer of the IRA!*

we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.
