The punishment for adultery can range from several years imprisonment in a concentration camp, to public hanging. The social stature officially sets 20 years as the base punishment, although the more influential people like higher ups in the military may be able to exploit loopholes to serve less. Adultery involved same sex participants is always punished with execution (more so because homosexuality carries capital punishment in the same social stature), as with being a repeat offender in most cases

Since your nation never exists in the World of Stratonesia, flying your nation's flag isn't considered a crime. People would think that you're promoting a fictional nation, as some sort of marketing for your novel/TV series or something.

On the other hand, wielding a gun in public is a crime on its own. Stratonesians are not allowed to own a firearm without a licence, so wielding an assault rifle would warrant you a fine of STC 36,000 at best and 1 month in prison at worst.

Nation's views are NOT representative of my political views IRL, although some views may or may not match. Will NOT disclose which views specifically.

NS stats (civil rights/economy/political freedoms) mostly NOT canon. There are some civil rights and liberties and political freedoms in Vertillia but the government is mostly authoritarian, especially when it comes to immigration, climate change, crime, and punishment.
