Rodrigo y Gabriela-Vikingman

While I enjoy these guys, I can only listen to this kind of acoustic music for so long. And it starts sounding kinda the same after a while, anyway. Instrumental music sounding the same over an entire album doesn't usually go well for me.

Hiromi – Move

Somehow I found this on RYM. Really awesome jazz fusion; nothing I've ever heard before.

GOD THAT PIANO PLAYING!

Last.FM and RYM all seem to be decent for recommendations.

Well, I assume RYM is, anyway. Never actually checked recommendations on that one

This actually wasn't a recommendation, I was browsing a chart I think...not really sure how I ended up there. Haven't really used RYM for recommendations yet either.

Rodrigo y Gabriela-Orion (Metallica Cover)

Possibly my favorite song on the album, and it's a cover. Not very common.

Rodrigo y Gabriela-Hanuman

I don't expect to consider their sound to live up as good on a 2nd album. They got great sound, but not a lot of range (Which you can only do so much with 2 acoustic guitars, anyway). So after a re-listen, I see them getting kinda eh on a 2nd album.

Rated their first a 8/10, though.

Foday Musa Suso-Ocean Wave

Kinda wish more of this guy was on Spotify. Saw him live 10 minutes up the highway from where I live in a tiny town of like 150 people for $5, and quite enjoyed him. A lot of his stuff is just very chill and mellow (that he played), and he had a nice singing voice. I suck at understanding what people are saying who have heavy accents, though. My dad and I saw "Gambian Cora Player" advertised or something and went "We gotta see this. It's only 5 bucks...". Well worth it, even if it was just something to do that's right up the road
