well right now its the black queen's beads, bob crewe and charles fox, from the movie barbarella.

but a few minuets ago it was skin contact, by reticent, from: pleasure, pain and distraction (which, dispite the title, is just a good solid melodic instrumental, no heavy breathing, nor whips, chains and great danes, involved) some of these names musicians come up with ...

It's called Track Four. I don't know what the real name is but I'll type out a lyric for you.

What I really want to know

But I really want to say.

(I've got a bad memory and can't type quickly.)

That it Could be What it Is, Is What it Is

There's a band I know that is called I.E.M, which stands for Incredible Exploding Mindfuck....Yeah, I know a fair amount of weird names, and great song names. I get so bored of the lame song names like 'Lovin' You', and so on. I like names like "We Always Think There Will Be More Time...", and names like that.
