If done as part of a terrorist operation, torturous public execution. Otherwise, enslavement or forced enrollment in a gladiator school.

Violent anti-government protests with massive looting of nearby businesses?

-NS Stats are not used-

The Chinese government only has itself to blame for the rise of sinophobia.

As long as no attempt to judge a legal or civil proceeding is undertaken, nothing will be done. If the person does either of those, they'll get arrested for fraud, obstruction of justice and other crimes and probably get 5-10 years in prison with a possibility of parole for good behaviour

(No scenario given by AN, doing AAN.)

Legal (law) degree or no legal degree, the punishment is an undoing of any 'sentencing' and a redo of the trial in which the impersonator participated, a fine of at least 1000 Mirian Pounds, and jail time of up to seven years.

Impersonating a drafting official to mock the government during wartime?

Impersonating a judge

Depends on the damage done, as everyone judged under his judgment are falsely tried and it and all related charges must be dropped.

Getting caught before causing any legal damage, remanded to a psychiatric institution to determine if person is a threat to himself or others. If criminally insane kept at an asylum until better but either way at least given 6 months to 1 year hard labor. If the impersonator actually gives judgment he also incurs the charges that he unduly charged others. It could be anything from a 1/2 an hours wages for adjudicating the shoplifting a candy bar to death penalty for letting a murderer dead to rights go free, or letting an innocent go into death row.

Impersonating a drafting official to mock the government during wartime?

During wartime sent before a special justiciar tribunal to determine if this was a matter of conscience or a matter of treason.

If a matter of conscience, ordered to release on one's opening social media page a header post explaining that this was an attempt (at expressing the liberty to exercise the right) to protest the government for a redress of grievances considered in poor taste by the Commonwealth during a time of war. The perp given the opportunity to give a forensic (legal) protest (an enumeration of wrongs done to the person, and what legal acts that is recommended to legally or lawfully rectify the grievances). He will then be trained (remedial classes) in the constitutional understanding of exercising the right to protest so that he doesn't run afoul of the very harsh penalties of wartime (which are very severe).

If a matter of treason, 5 to 20 years of hard labor, or if incidental in the cause of the death of others, death penalty.

A fine for impersonation of a specialist. A larger fine or a prison sentence if you actually somehow managed to bury someone while impersonating an undertaker.
