Look, I understand that national defense and tradition are nothing to be sneezed at, but you can't freeze a country in time, and you can't force people to be loyal without committing cruelties upon them. If Oswald fails to recognize them, the 20th Century will be rough on him."

"I want to like Sandre, I really do. But you can't call yourself a damned libertarian and allow the travesty of auto prohibition to continue. It's absurd. Also, his comments about staring death in the face because he skydived... I mean, that's exaggeration at its weirdest. You want death, join the army like me, get airdropped while listening to [GERMAN EQUIVALENT TO BLOOD ON THE RISERS] and clear some rooms. Then you'll know exactly how death smells."
