I know that this is unrelated to the thread, but I have surely missed 'Man' during my break, and I've posted here the most for a reason, after all, and so, I will be posting a rather lengthy response, I do hope that is alright.

A slow dripping sound resounds from the 'water' near Man, rousing him from unconsciousness, his head hurts, and he feels heavy, for he is soaked in what he believes to be water. He slowly opens his eyes, his head pounding from the blistering headache that has befallen him, and sees an array of viscera strewn across what seems to be a river in front of him, he cannot believe his eyes, has he gone insane? Is he hallucinating? He staggers, almost falling to the ground as he attempts to stand, his foot getting caught against something underneath him. He looks down to see a corpse. Not just one corpse, but many corpses, a pile, an array, a 'sea' of corpses. He clutches his head, the headache worsening beyond belief, and feels as though his very sanity is being shaken to the core, he cannot take this anymore, and he looks around, there are corpses everywhere. Blood throughout the void of dimly lit darkness that surrounds him for what appears to be miles upon miles. He is trapped, and feels utterly helpless as he falls to the ground, becoming yet another body amongst the pile, as he fades into blackness as he passes out.
