A big problem with modern films is the sequel. The first movie is usually the best, but even with the best movie ever, the sequels are almost always lesser in quality. And while a second and third movie could still be good, things really seem to take a turn for the worse when the 4th film comes out...

We all can agree Across the Spiderverse was better than Into the Spiderverse (if you haven't watched it that's ok).

I didn't say that, that is a part of a post by Bradfordville i quoted /stillme

How was I to know?

/reserved DEFINITION:

To reserve a post as to prevent being ninja'd. This is especially useful for having posts that may take effort or a good portion of time to make, as there is a greater chance of such things being ninja'd than a slash and a word. Only practical in some threads compared to others. The idea is to put /reserved first and edit it once you have a proper answer. As such, you are not ninja'd. BN will do you as long as you eventually edit your /reserved into a proper post.
