They're a multidimensional state whose founder is a legendary figure known as Big Brother that is equated with the supreme deity in Shinto religion.

Partially inspired by the Third Odyssey mod for EU4, this nation is essentially a Byzantine successor state in South America that has fused together Ancient Greek Religion with Greek Orthodox Christianity. It mixes the aesthetic of Byzantium and Ancient Greece, with very open and liberal social values but with an Imperial Monarchy. NS stats are referenced but are not strictly followed to a T.

There nation exists because of a domino effect started by the second American civil war

While they were only discovered in 1712, they actually successfully gained their independence in the same century. That's surprising, generally, one needs at least a few centuries of co-existence as a society to build up the culture and political atmosphere required to want independence.

Contrary to popular belief, the movement itself that engulfed North America started in Mexico, not America.

Their own Civil War was, to a certain point (and that point is "almost completely") similar to that of the United States of America. Fought over abolition of Slavery (specifically, that of the Peruvians, who had been enslaved following their defeat in the Inking-Peruvian war some 30 years earlier)
