Necrophobic - "Where Sinners Burn"

Blackened Death Metal from the album "The Nocturnal Silence" (1993)

Things don't get much better than this... I usually say that perfection can't be defined, but this album comes pretty damn close.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Sopor Aeternus & The Ensemble of Shadows - "Shadowsphere 1 & 2 (The Mono-world and the Subconscious Symbols)"

I am rarely in the mood for this, but when I am it is beautiful - especially Part 2.
