Sigur Rós - Sæglópur

One of my all-time favorite Sigur Ros songs. I highly recommend, if you haven't listened to much Sigur Ros, Glosoli, Hoppipolla, Svo Hljótt, Untitled 8 (especially the last like, 5 minutes), and others I can post to you later if you want.

The complete discography of Sigh (a Japanese metal band) is on Spotify, but that's pretty much all of the Japanese music I listen to. Along with some Boris.

Viking Metal is sort of like a fusion of black metal and folk metal. It is characterized by its relatively slow pace, use of keyboards and synth, dark imagery, and almost always lyrical themes of Norse mythology.

Modern viking metal

I don't think you'll like any of the modern viking metal. You might like the Bathory ones though.

I know Boris and Mono are on Spotify, but a lot of Japanese stuff my friends listen to doesn't seem to be on Spotify.

And it's kinda hard picturing that band being Japanese for some reason....I've had too many friends of mine showing me Japanese anime music I think.

And yeah, I think I like the Bathory the ones the most. Though, still listening to the longest modern one.

Bjork-Declare independence.

Welp, that's viking metal for you. That's roughly what Solstafir's early work sounds like.

Bathory and Ensiferum are both among my favorite metal bands, actually.
