Very well known to me, but the wider forums I'd say not very known, except maybe F7.

I've seen AN a few times on the forum, but I'm not sure if AN is well-known or not. That being said, AN has made themselves known in several circles and if AN is not yet well-known, they are on their way to that status already.

Seen them like once before

La Ferra Suprema Reigns Supreme over the vast lands of Stella Nera
A land where humanity is king, above god and devil alike. A blissful Utopia for Humanity, a horrible Dystopia for sentient robots.

Robots shouldn't have rights or citizenship;
Compromise on other non-human sapient entities is possible, with limitations, but not on these buckets of bolts. They should serve humanity and have absolutely no place in society other than as our servants. Think of the benefits of this. Plus, they would almost certainly overtake humanity if we gave them the chance, whether out of pure advanced abilities or malice, or worse, both. Think of humanity.

Humanity First!

On the basis of this particular account? Probably not really known at all tbh.

Including Frisemark, since that seems to be the same person behind this account? Probably still not that well known anymore but a few people that have been in F7 for quite a while would definitely recommend recognise them.

A solarpunk-lunarpunk, democratic confederalist PMT-FT nation transitioning towards a communist society.

I have seen them once...

~ I consider NationStates military statistics (defense, arms manufacturing) as entirely canon, so refer to them when referring to anything regarding my firepower.

~ This nation does not represent my political views in real life.

I've not seen AN before, but judging by the number of posts, I'd say not very well known.

Too authoritarian? Yeah I get that a lot.
