It has come to my attention that young people of today are spending most of their time playing a game called "FortNight" on their Nintendos.....Now I have no issues with video games because my kids loved their Super Nintendo I bought them for Christmas many years ago.....However, today's youth are spending more time on their a playing games instead of working!...SAD!....It seems to me that they should get off the FortNight and learn to operate a Fork Lift!.....AMEN.....
