That album remains on my list. You've got me curious with those black metal vocals being mentioned, so next song will be that one.

Cradle of Filth - The Foetus of a New Day Kicking

The song starts kind of slow, though.

The one I'm currently listening to seems to have more of the black metal vocals (At least I think it is black metal? Not exactly a genre I know well)

I know symphonic black and other black metal genres but as for black metal itself, I don't know much about it either. ☐

I'm liking this one. It's quite different than most other doom.

I'm surprised some of the vocal style isn't really bothering me all that much, because it is usually a vocal style I don't really care for.

Woods of Ypres-I Was Buried In Mount Pleasant Cemetery

This one on the other hand doesn't really have any type of vocal style that usually bothers me. Really, I think I'm just opening up to that more considering how much I like Dir en Grey

Well, the vocalist of Wood of Ypres does have a nice voice. □

Dir en Grey is extremely varied. It goes from punky to deathy. I like the music video for Obscure.

Do you think he does better solo or with Emperor?

Yup, he does. And yeah, Dir en Grey is pretty varied. I've only listened to 3 of their albums. I need to listen to more at some point.

Still listening to the same song at the moment.
