Not a crime.

Involuntary manslaughter?

Not a legal category, because it isn't specific enough. "Mutltiple murder with extensive property damage" is probably the closest. Depending on the details: a long prison sentence with mandatory psychological evaluation. Is likely to mean life in prison.

EDIT: ninja'd

Not a crime (but a court will decide whether it was self-defense).

Sexual deviancy/perversion (whatever that might mean in your nation), without actually performing the acts.

We don't offer surgeries or anything, and if you're caught crossdressing you will be fined. You'd also get beat up by some thugs.

If privately indulging, nothing.

Depending on the harm done, either one of these convictions:

- Battery: 30 days in jail.
- Assault: up to 2 years in jail.
- Assault causing bodily harm: up to 10 years in jail.

As a social worker who knows your client (I can't find the right word) is transgender, intentionally misgendering and/or deadnaming them?
