Ninja'd. Betraying the state, likely as a foreign spy, is punishable by a prison sentence and monitoring. Sometimes death, depending on what information they've given away. However, criticizing the state is not considered a crime, so long as violence is not called upon by said criticism.

Sabotaging the AN's war effort from within.

If they don't break/steal anything, nothing; we simply toss them out. Then, we mandate additional security for the base and additional training for all soldiers stationed there. If we have nothing to hide, we have nothing to fear from people breaking into our bases. (Because the public don't know the locations of any bases of VALUE...)

If you don't burn anything, you'll just get tossed out by security.

If you do, that's arson (yay), and apart from the sweet, sweet 15 years in prison (at least), well, now you're gonna burn your own property. (yay)

Charges:

- Aggravated Assault
- Treason
- Assaulting Law Enforcement (technically the PM constitutes this)

Likely Punishments on the charges:

- 7-10 years imprisonment (considering the seriousness of the situation)
- 5-7 years imprisonment
- 1-3 years imprisonment

All up: 13 - 20 years imprisonment.

That'd be:

- Attack Against The Integrity Of The Nation: 12-20 years
- Unlawful Escape From Law: 1-3 years
- Unlawful Use Of Currency: 1-3 years

And in the most extreme cases:

- Treason: 30-50 years

So yeah, you could get anywhere between 14 to 76 years in prison.

Also, the bribed government official would be fired and charged with:

- Enabling Of Unlawful Activity: 5-8 years
- Attack Against The Integrity Of The Nation: 12-20 years
- Unlawful Use Of Currency: 1-3 years

And Treason too if the briber got charged with it.

So anything from 18 to 81 years.
