People trying to convey an accent through writing. I always find that mildly annoying. As well as people showing their character is speaking another language by putting some google translate Russian or whatever in the post.

Republic of Dayganistan

A secular, Tajik dominated state in Central Asia which has experienced 40 years of democratic backsliding. NS stats are NOT used.

That doesn't seem severe enough for a DOS. Did they have a history of past offenses?

Well, there was more to it than that. They weren't permabanned just for spicing up their posts with a bit of foreign language. They were banned for Google Translating their entire posts into multiple languages and putting all these translations into their posts and ignored moderators telling them to put the foreign language text into spoilers and, when they started to actually do that, would put massive gaps of spaces between the spoilers.

Yeah that was annoying. I was considering asking a moderator to removed them, since they didn't contribute anything but decided to simply put a message saying that reaction replies aren't allowed.

What's wrong with the slave markets?

In 2021, Lord President George Fenwick lost re-election and sacked Munkchester. He and his son promptly escaped from community service in Sweden to international waters. Today, still wanted by the government, they survive as slavers of fortune. If you have a problem, if no one else can help, and if you can find them, maybe you can hire... the Fenwick Foundation.

I swear you have four different roleplay threads about your slave trade going on at the same time right now. It gets a bit repetitive when it's all just "we object/accept this as legal and we will do x about it"

Instead of writing some edgy nation description, let me just say this nation's concept was made in about 30 minutes and it somehow didn't end up horribly. My inactivity may kill the momentum though.

Because at any one time there's at least one slave auction in either economics or roleplaying. They always play out the same, and it's just worn out and tiresome

Add airports/airlines to that list – not annoying, but seems to be a recurring theme in GE&T
