Would I, the player? No.

Would the citizens of Glycker? Probably.

In the 1880s, a sect of radical Christian evangelicals become disillusioned with the United States with all its vice, corruption, inequality, and racism. They set out to start a new society in a new land. While seemingly innocent at first, their society eventually descends into madness as the populace reveres the veritable lunatic "Reverend" Jimmy Bradstreet, worshiping him as a God-King who will smite all enemies of Christ...with nuclear weapons.

Sure

A nation founded in the early 1800s by Federalist immigrants from the United States. Has since developed an identity of its own and imperial ambitions. Now a neoliberal imperial power that justifies its aggression by putting it the name of tolerance and social justice.

Handshakes and tie knots. I don't have time for someone who can't master these simple things.
