A small fine and debriefing on how you managed to get that close to one unauthorized, then you are sent on your way.

Death penalty and confiscation of goods to pay for the priceless military jet or the jet itself (if it survived), the loss of which would bankrupt us.

Founding an unauthorized political party while claiming to be a legitimate one.

Since most Vao nations do not have political parties, you would probably either be ignored, questioned, or investigated for any sorts of unsavory links to whatever rebel movement. Assuming you don't get caught, then you basically would become a rebel at that point. In other Vao nations, notably the only two democratic ones, they wouldn't really care much.

Kill that bastardo and blast coffin dance, while carryinh his dead body through the streets.

In a court, during some legal dispute over a chicken, which was rolled into the asphalt by steamroller, an asian farmer and steamroller driver become more and more angry. At first, they yell at eachother, and then, farmer suddenly runs to the judge's place, takes judge's gavel and hits the dirver in the head with it. Driver retalitates, yells a slur and starts punching farmer out. When the guard interferes, driver kicks him and yells "This is between us! Piss off!"

Sky Reavers are retconned Skyhooked. A bunch of crazy, wild everpartying semi-anarchists, who are resistant to cold, heat and diseases, can can process booze like hell. MT/PMT tech. Wanna know more or have a request? It's here: <https://forum.nationstates.net/viewtopic.php?f=23&t=505973>

Remember, the fact, that we are semi-anarchy doesn't mena, that ya' can go around and rob random people. We still got law and order, loose as they are.

In almost all nations, at least 10-30 years in prison for terrorism (minors do not get separate jurisdiction). In one exception, you have the Tsailan Republic, who would offer you to join the national defense force in exchange that you don't do that again. If you refuse, then also you just get 10-30 years minimum for terrorism.

Depends on the outage. Local and accidental leads to a fine while a major and intentional one can lead to a series of punishments, ending with outlawry or death due to the precarious state of the small power grid in the Republic.

Fined and a citation on the perpetrator's driver's license which would make it more difficult to get good car insurance and would lead to them losing their license if they receive too many minor citations.

Negligence at work resulting in the death of an individual.

Not relevant. The crime is the crime itself regardless of instrument used.

At a routine traffic stop, suddenly kissing the policeman on the face, and persisting to try to kiss any officer that approaches while repeating over and over, "If you kiss it, it will go away."

Life in solitary confinement for the perpetrator(s) and death for their families, with their executions being the last thing the perpetrator(s) see before being locked into solitary confinement. All records of their existence, even birth certificates, are destroyed. Acknowledging that they ever existed is punishable by death.
