Not a crime if they do not indoctrinate children with western LGBTQ ideas- in Lakan culture being gay or trans is not a big deal, after all.

During a military operation destroying civilian houses as a collateral damage

Death penalty regardless, though the OG investigation team would be called into question given the evidence and tech was there to solve it in the first place in 2001...

Basically gay is okay as long as it doesn't include gay parades, positive discrimination, etc. Basically here they're treated and behave the same as heterosexual people.

Firstly, there are no executives in Laka- state socialism after all, second of all, no one will understand the reference. At worst milizioner will ask the perp to stop and if won't comply it will be a very long day in Miliz custody.

Attempting and failing to pull off a coup?

Any such failed attempt at overthrowing the superiors within the cartel is answered with death, to be arranged by and done according to the preferences of the very person you failed to overthrow. Some will perform it on the very spot (so a failed coup might see the perpetrators killed right after failing to accomplish it), while others may arrange for it to be done in private, and still others in public.

The methods vary considerably, from shooting or stabbing the perpetrators themselves, to having an underling do the deed, while others prefer poisoning, and still others have fed would-be assassins to wild animals. Perhaps the most unusual such death was arranged so that the perpetrators would be forced to fight in the gladiator games, but before the fight they were drugged with delirants and forced to swallow ground glass, while the referees were bribed to look the other way. They died in a terrified fugue state while experiencing excruciating pain.

If people died due to it, you could very well get the death penalty. It's very hard to prove you are the one that spread the virus though, but if it's proven beyond any shadow of a doubt and people died due to it it's death penalty.

Depends. If the parents know full well that their children are skipping school without doing anything, they will be given a fine of 1050 BKL ( 800 USD ). If they are found to be encouraging their children to skip school however, will land the parents in prison for 1.5 months up to 9 months and a fine of 2500 BKL ( 1904 USD ). The children will have to undergo 2 weeks of compulsory counselling sessions for both cases. For the latter case, both parents involved in it will get their parental license revoked and the custody of the children will be given to a family willing to adopt them.
