My dad and I were discussing how Sigur Ros should try and push that song for radio play, because it sounds more radio friendly. Though, I thought there were multiple good candidates for radio play in Med Sud I Eyrum Vid Spilum Endalaust, and it never really got radio play, so.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
