That they apparently control Madagascar, and they essentially kicked out Germans out of their colonies during WW1. Also, they seem to be founded by the Siths, who fled The Order. I wonder, what kind of Siths those are, as those in Star Wars seem to be too evil for such a nation, which seems a bit too... peaceful, or democratic for them?

They seem to have about 30 million soldiers in their service, which, if compared to their population of about 900 million, is about 3.3% of their whole population, which is a pretty large proportion, because most of armies have less than 1% of their population in their army (Except for North Korea, most likely). Their reserves are even higher, which makes me think of them as a North Korea-esque country, with all that militarism, and stuff.

Well, we Sith are a remnant of an Empire, much like Star Wars, except nearly everyone had such powers (and only a land based Empire), until we were almost eradicated by Atlantis (DC Atlantis). At that point we decided that conquest would only stretch us thin and the culture at the time would promote infighting, thus leading to instability and destruction. So we care more about remaining free, stable and existing as a united people than invasion and 'EMPIRE MWAHAHAHA'. And the democracy, well, is a way to placate the non-magi populace who we feared would revolt, leading to more instability.

any attempts to enforce usage of any faith within the state are punished with a jail sentence of 10 years.

Hey, we have a similar policy to this here, which is often modified by our members to fit in with their societal conditions of everyday life. For example, (our version) Arabia reeducates islamic people and imprisons islamic extremists for 10+ years at minimum. Of course, I assume your law is more liberal than the laws here.

I think it's not explicitly stated on the factbooks but it seems like behind their human-supremacist government there exists a secret deep state of mythical creatures within their deep state led by Tom. Many played along with it due to a mix of fear of them or opportunism in utilizing their powers.
