I just realized that Jose Gonzalez' Teardrop video is perfect for tomorrow (for me)

And last I checked Australia is doing mighty fine as well.

Being Liberal, doesn't give you the right to claim an open mind. An open mind is merely the door way to your own conclusion. By making this conclusion, you have closed your mind. The intelligent tend to be cynical, while the bliss tend to be the most compassionate. Also, if your people on NS are catagorized as cynical and compassionate, it is not a glitch, your society has made them psychopaths at worse and sociopaths at the least. They may appear charming but underneath....

Well, personally I believe the 2012 phenomenon is absolute bullshit, but I wouldn't mind too much if the world did end.

This. I'm not exactly one to care if the world ends or anything, but I believe this 2012 stuff is bullshit. Most people (Or at least people I associate myself with) all seem to think it's bullshit. It seems to be more of an internet joke right now than anything. And I've seen some good jokes coming out of it.

It's entertaining to make fun of stupid people, but I think the whole thing total is quite stupid and all the people perpetuating the hysteria are a bit infuriating. I feel kind of offending being of Mayan descent, too.

Only listened to one song from Chris Cornell. Don't really know Everclear or Downface. Everlast I like some of his stuff, specifically Put Your Lights On.

Oh, you have to have listened to more of Chris's stuff than one song. He's also the lead singer/writer for Soundgarden (past and present) and Audioslave. Of the artists in my little set, Cornell's my all-time favourite - I like almost everything he's ever put out. I only know the one Downface song (discovered it in my KaZaA days, tagged as a Creed/Tool song, which was too interesting a concept to pass up - turns out, it wasn't them :-), but it's a good one. I know of more Everclear, but really just listen that one song of theirs. I'm more of a fan of Everlast, though.

Have you looked into Kamelot? It's all-male singing, with the exception of a few guests stars (Singer of Epica as one). I wouldn't recommend their old stuff, though. Their old singer was terrible.

I'm gonna have to, as several people have suggested it. Cheers :)

Disturbed from what I've heard sounds pretty damn dull and boring. Not really a fan. I think they sound like what my dad and I decided to refer to as "Butt-rock", but "Butt-metal" works too.

Hah. To each their own, as I always say. I'm a pretty big fan of Disturbed (not in my Top 5, but maybe Top 20). Hard music, and David Draiman's got an awesome voice, which he uses to deliver generally awesome lyrics ("Gonna fight the war, and use my music as a weapon!" headbangs).

Currently listening to Pg.Lost - Terrain (as per your suggestion). I liked Jura, and this track's sounding alright so far. I prefer Pelican, but Pg.Lost is definitely worth looking into, cheers :)

Sarah Brightman - Fleurs Du Mal

Great voice on this girl, even though the song lacks the contrast I'm searching for. No thumbs-up on the Pandora station, but tagging this post to check out the artist later anyway :)
