(ww2 was a lot bigger of a mess TTL than it was IRL. I mean, it wasn't even remotely as bloody, despite being a lot longer, but the sides changed almost constantly. I might make a few interesting facts thread posts about it later, though I am not making a factbook for it) /skip

Cars and motorcycles have been banned to make way for public transportation such as high speed trains; while the sentiment is understandable, this seems unwise, given the fact that villages would probably depend on private transportation and I doubt a rail line will be built to each village.

I don't use NS stats, please refer to the factbooks. Terms to use: Cybus, Cybusian, The Infinite Cybusian Empire. Feel free to TG with suggestions, comments, feedback, questions, etc, especially about factbooks.

"The star at the center of the system has been severely tampered with on multiple levels to produce a strange form of radiation that causes communication and sensors to be completely disrupted within a distance of 25 astronomical units from Thom, so long as one has uninterrupted line-of-sight with the star. Enemy vessels are effectively rendered deaf and blind across all bandwidths due to this radiation (even line of sight communications are severely disrupted). Faster than light travel within line-of-sight of the star is also disrupted within this radius. The Godulans circumvent this by utilizing probability hubs in the shadow regions produced by planets and larger asteroids."
