Kept having this one that's not on Spotify in my head, that's from the movie Push that, despite not being an amazing movie, I still have watched it like 3 times (Which is rare for me), and I really enjoy it despite its flaws.

Just one of those movies. Hanna was kind of the same deal. Though I love the soundtrack for Hanna more then the movie itself still. Heard the soundtrack first.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

You know, unless I know it somewhere in the back of my mind vaguely, I don't think I've ever heard a Madonna song before.

Yeah, I do know some Michael Jackson, but mostly because I have family members who listen to him. Not in my house, though, but like my Grandma, and my brother, I think.

Pretty sure I know the song you linked. Seems familiar.
