What AN's banner tells me? They probably got rid of either commies, or a corrupt government in general through demonstrations, and now seek a new path.

As the banner portrays a standard emblazoned with a stag, they must have either a strong connection with their wildlife and countryside or are nostalgic about the loss of it.

The Cossack Peoples are an unstable Eastern Bloc nation that has been riddled by years of civil unrest following the chaotic collapse of their parent state, the Soviet Union. Following the collapse, the Cossack Peoples have been under constant oppression from a weak government. They suffer from a crumbling economy, one that is present in most of the former-Soviet states.

Catsfern is a dystopian/cyberpunk-esque metropolis where normal plant life cannot survive from the air quality. As well as that, the banner suggests that the society of the nation must be totalitarian because of the lack of advertisements, color, etc. in the buildings; a very utilitarian style..
