Frog Cosby, realizes this power and knows he can grow by eating stuff, and tries to eat the sun, it is too spicy, and he only is able to eat half of it, but now there is not enough mass for the hydrogen in the sun to overcome the columb barrier, so the sun collapses in on itself, and goes supernova.

Frog Cosby protects the world with all of his might, consuming the supernova all he can before turning into a mini-sun that orbits Earth, keeping it safe. Frog Cosby essentially dies from this noble sacrifice, no longer having a brain.
