Thanks for the link, Corrian.

You're welcome.

I want the new EP that was announced! Though it involves buying tickets and I know how quick tickets like to sell out....Considering when I tried to buy them last year they sold out in 15 minutes in Seattle.

Edit: Just looked it up, and I don't see any shows in Seattle anyway. Oh well.

Perhaps you'll find it online in a few months. ☐

I'm hooked. At least with "Glósíli" atm. It sounds... beautiful. And the music video... my goodness. It's breath taking.

Probably. They have a new album coming out (they just had one last year. Apparently they went on a break for 4 years and came back with a load of ideas), and I guess an EP too.

I can throw you some more suggestions in telegram.

Listening to the same as before.

Man, Corrian. Always so eager to recommend stuff, huh? Especially Sigur Rós.

My inbox is stuffed with links he sent me. I've returned the favor on a couple of occasions (he asked me to send him some Mastodon and Dir En Grey, which I did. He loves Diru now.)

Fightstar - Mono

Song ain't over yet. Six and a half minutes of awesome.

One of the things I sent consisted solely of Kyo spazzing with his vocals.

Check Kōzi. Not for the vocals, mind, but for the musical aspect of the songs.

Yup, that's me. I love sharing music. Dunno why, I just do. And the funny thing is I'm not sure I'd even call Sigur Ros my favorite band anymore, yet alone my favorite Post-Rock band. But because they WERE my favorite band at a time, they still stand out to me and I want to see them live.

Porcupine Tree-Remember Me Lover.

I probably consider Porcupine Tree a bigger favorite now than Sigur Ros.

Assassins Creed: Brotherhood-Jesper Kyd-City of Rome.

Still love this song, and it's one of my favorite songs from a video game ever.

Assassins Creed:Brotherhood-Jesper Kyd-Flags of Rome[/url].

This ones awesome because for the big rumbling sound, they apparently actually banged giant flagpoles down on the ground for the song. And the flapping sounds is real flags.
