Since I'm in a Roman mood right now for some reason, I think of the wreaths Roman emperors such as that cool ass dude Caligula had in their standards. No wonder we want to emulate him.

The flag makes me think of a former empire republic in central or south-eastern Europe, though the name makes me think its a break-away state with its newly found independence.

All NS Stats are canon.

Oh, and I guess you can make up anything else about this nation, like geography and such, based on your own imagination. I don't really plan on writing lore on this nation, at least for now.

Basically if Leif Erikson had founded Vinland off the east coast of North America and it survived to the present as a multiracial state based largely on a fusion of Norse/Icelandic and Indigenous American cultures.

NS stats are more or less canon, within reason.
