Iced Earth - Hallowed Be Thy Name

The last song on this cover album. Another Iron Maiden cover.

That's the next Iced Earth I'm going to listen to. Because that's the only IE album I own along with Dark Genesis box.

AC/DC - Hard as a Rock

But first I listen to this one. The latest addition in my music collection.

It's the song that introduced me to them, bonus points because it came on Pandora while I was in American History class.

The first song of theirs I heard was Divide Devour. I thought they were just another shitty power metal band. In 2012 however, a friend of mine linked The Coming Curse and I loved it. Listened to their entire discography and now they're one of my all time favorite bands. Makes me feel bad for judging them by the first song and not listening to them for that 4+ years. As much as I love them, I still hate Divide Devour with a passion ☐

Mass Burial - Beaten, Chopped And Eaten By The Porks

No classic rock at all, just relentless death metal!

AC/DC - Cover You in Oil

Unfortunately I own none of their albums all I have is a pandora station for them. On a related note I like a lot of power metal so they mesh well with my tastes.

I like power metal a LOT more nowadays than I did 7 years ago.

AC/DC - Boogie Man

This isn't among their best albums but it's still a solid rock album for when you just want some background music ☐

I'm up for Sabaton, Rhapsody of Fire, Dragonforce, and some others that would be better suited for the metal thread.
