How am I being an ass?

Crab was cluttering the thread and low effort double-posting, so of course I'd be annoyed.

I was never mad at you.

I do believe Wyrmy was making a joke there. But maybe not, I'm bad at humor so I wouldn't know.

Sorry for the double post (but it's been all day and also it's F7, so who really gives a toss) but one thing I've seen more and more recently (although it is by no means a new phenomenon) is misspelling the word 'canon'.

I'm just gonna put this a large font so people will read it:

CANON AND CANNON ARE DIFFERENT
FREAKING WORDS AND IF YOU SAY SOMETHING IS 'CANNON' OR 'NON-
CANNON' IN REGARDS TO YOUR
NATION'S CONTINUITY THEN YOU

I mean, they're mostly just kids doing that, and it is still pretty easily understood, so I wouldn't think it is too big an issue.

It certainly is jarring, though 🤔

Quite a few people in the "Ask AU a question" thread have been posting simple questions about flags and names or asking questions which have already been posted many times before.

KG needs to create an automated script that replies with their standard response each time someone asks the Mongolia question.

Yeah. That specific question. IIRC, KG said so...or it could be hyperbole, which I certainly hope so.

In my case, the question is "Why catgirls?" Well, my main.

the reason i don't post in that AU thread as federal remnants is because i know it'll just be "why is ur nation so miserable" or something like that

Q: Why anime?

Q: What anime?

A: It's in the sig and/or the overview factbook.

The answer for Tohorin and LP would be 19th Century German anthropology. I don't know how, but saying "anime" would be less weird.

All this talk about getting the same response over and over again reminds me of how bad us authoritarian nations have it in the IC response department. I remember way back when I actually participated in the leader response thread, about half the replies I got were something along the lines of "he is bad and his nation will fall!!1". I get it it's not very wholesome chungus 100 but cmon man

People don't read factbooks sometimes, and this is especially evident for nations that people think they understand from the surface but don't actually. I remember vividly two cases: the first of which was when someone referred to Azur Deutschland's leader as "he", and the second of which was when someone claimed Chairwoman Ōmiya would be friends with Abe Shinzo.
