Most likely, I'd generally support the Libertarian Party the most, but if there was a chance that the Pro-Life Party was going to win a seat or local position nearby, I'd support them just to get a strong anti-abortion figure in any form of government.

A cluster of islands located in the East Pacific between the modern-day Ecuadorian Galapagos and Costa Rica. Founded after a libertarian revolution overthrew imperial Spanish control of the islands, and decisive rebel victory. Now a nation effectively worshipped by libertarians and conservative Christians everywhere.

Partido Emancipación de Distrito Central pushes for the foundation of two separate districts to be formed out of Distrito Central; Distrito de la Puebla, representing more centrist areas, including Puebla Arena, and being 43% urban; and Distrito Montañeté, an 87% rural district named for the Montañeté Valley where its largest city is, and being more conservative and libertarian than Distrito de la Puebla. Bill passes district committee 8-3.
