I love the album you're listening to. Just got it a couple weeks ago on CD.

Their first album is better in my opinion. This ones not bad but the first has more songs that stood out as being great to me. This one I can tell they played it safe and they even admitted to playing it safe. I'm curious about their next album, though.

I'll admit I don't have their first album yet, though I've heard "The Cave" and "Little Lion Man" and I do prefer them over "I Will Wait." Don't know why I got Babel instead, guess I was just in the mood for "I Will Wait" at the time. I've read similar reviews on iTunes though, so I think I understand where you're coming from. Still good music though.

"So He Won't Break"--The Black Keys

Even The Cave and Little Lion Man are some of my least favorite songs of Sigh No More, but I still prefer them over the single I Will Wait. But I like all of them. Songs like Thistle and Weeds, Winter Winds, Dust Bowl Dance, After The Storm, and White Blank Page are all songs that stand out to me as the best Mumford and Sons songs which is why I like their first album more.

My favourite example of black/doom, which is a genre I must explore further.

Nicholas Cage's son makes awesome symphonic black metal. Surprisingly, it's among my favourite symphonic bm songs.

What is your favourite song, Corrian?

Wut. That's kind of strange to picture.

What is your favourite song, Corrian?

I used to be able to name favorites but I can't anymore really. There's just too much that is great for me to name favorites or a favorite.

I can try to name some that are up there, though ☐

Sigur Ros' Untitled 8, which is post-rock and you could probably call the end closer to metal but calling Sigur Ros metal ever is a pretty far stretch. Also, Kveikur and Brennisteinn from their new album are up there, which is probably the closest you could ever get to calling them metal.

Pg. Lost's Jura which I guess could be metal.

Jesu's You Wear Their Masks

Various Secret Chiefs 3 songs.

Anesthetize, Way Out Of Here, Buying New Soul, and various other Porcupine Tree songs.

Agent Fresco has a lot that are up there but I don't think I can name a favorite.

Various Rishloo and Karnivool songs are definitely up there.

I could probably name a gazillion post-rock songs that would be up there.

Back in the day, it was pretty much Sigur Ros being my favorite band, and a lot of their songs being my favorites. And Radiohead having various songs I really enjoyed, too. Eyvind Kang's Marriage of Days I've loved since I was like 6 but I wouldn't even put that as a favorite anymore. It is much harder for me to say specifics now.

None of those are metal enough for me. ☐

I'm working on compiling a list of songs which would have favourite status.

It's easier to listen to it than to picture it. ☐ His band has a 96% overall rating on Encyclopedia Metallum, so apparently I'm not the only who considers it to be quality symphonic bm.

I listen to way more then just metal, so that's why my favorites vary.

Death Grips-Get Got

The rare occasion I like hip-hop music. Though this has various other influences with it so that probably helps with me liking it.
