Raison d'Être - Synopsis

CVT Temp wrote:

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Possibly and most likely the most soothing song in existence.

Liieees, a metal band/guy can't make the most soothing song in existence!

I haven't actually thoroughly listened through this album yet...so I dunno. I think In Our Nature is pretty good, though. His cover of a Massive Attack song is great.

Huh, I think I already checked this song out after listening to the Jose Gonzalez version or something. Interesting how the two songs I know he covered are originally electronic songs.
