Hera-Soundcheck Song

Listening to her live album. She sounds rather good live.

And dude, this song is about doing a Soundcheck before performing your songs. That's kinda awesome.

"This is just a soundcheck song. A song so I can see if this sounds right. Tell me if it takes to long and I'll hurry up. Testing, testing. Why do they always say the same thing, same thing? 1 2, 1 2, 16, 47, 28"

Like I said, I like her mostly for her lyric writing.....and apparently her sense of humor.

Vaguely a pessimist, certainly an absurdist, unironically an antinatalist.

Olly Murs-Army of two

When you are courting a nice girl an hour seems like a second. When you sit on a red-hot cinder a second seems like an hour. That's relativity.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
