My problem with Activision is they seem to have become jerks since the success of Call of Duty. They shut down the studio that made Prototype because Prototype 2 didn't make enough money for their standards, which I could see being very easily flawed with the success of Call of Duty.

we, unlike the bourgeoisie, have nothing to lose and therefore our expression will be the only honest one, our words will be the only challenging ones and our art will be the one revolutionary expression. We need new noise and new voices and new canvases to become something more than the last poets of a useless generation.
