Maybe. Haven't been to that whole Indo-Malay smörgåsbord in real life, and it doesn't have the irl issues of the region. Would definitely be a neat place to stay in for at least a little while, I think.

On the bad side, state press, capital punishment, conscription, low civil rights, and nuclear power, however on the bright side has high quality of life (tons of stats I don't have time to list). I would say neutral.

No.

Why would I live in Indonesia, considering that this version seems to be not much of an improvement over its Islamic counterpart.

Oh, no. Heck no! ><

"The regime has been panned worldwide for its lack of political freedoms, authoritarianism and totalitarianism, state repression, and Stalinist purges."

With the latter, you'll never know when your time is coming, so this is already bad enough, but with a LONG list of banned video games? No way. That's too far!
