I actively try to purge from my memory the songs I dislike. I need that memory capacity for songs I enjoy.

Same. That's why I'm gonna forget this album about 10 minutes after I'm done.

Cleric is definitely one of those bands that require a certain taste...The vocalist is actually really good at what he does but I don't generally care for that style of singing most of the time, so when I first heard my dad listening to them I was picking on him for liking them but I came to enjoy them at least somewhat more, even if the style is still a style I don't care for that much.

Could be styles of music I usually dislike even more, though...like what I have heard of hardcore (Which is nothing I remember, really?), and most of the punk I've heard...

Let's just say I've heard much worse in that general realm of music and I could probably find you something shittier pretty easy.
