I actually quite like this. My favorite of the 2 Icelandic metal bands shown to me.

Edit: God damn Iceland's beautiful.

That's my favorite song by them too. They're earlier work is a lot heavier, but I like their new stuff better. They went from black/viking metal to a sort of psychedelic sounding post-metal (like Fjara)

Solstafir - "Fjara"

I checked Wikipedia (which is obviously not always accurate), and it said they were viking, black, and post-metal. I don't even know what viking metal is. This album said it was experimental metal and post-rock, which I can definitely hear the post-rock influence. Have you heard much post-rock? Post-rock can be pretty sweet, and usually instrumental.

Solstafir-Sjuki Skugginn

Edit: And I'm usually more into this type of metal over the lot heavier stuff, so I'm definitely more likely to appreciate their new album over the other stuff. They only have their new album on Spotify. I like how all the Icelandic bands seem to be on Spotify, while I rarely see anything Japanese on there. But, I definitely like some "Black metal", like some of Triptykon's stuff.
