Man, having been spawned from the æther, doesn't understand how to breathe and suffocates.

The next new man arises fully aware of everything including the fact that he is but a pawn for bored posters on a mini-game forum. He promptly dances a jig.

Man commits suicide to avoid being controlled by random people on a mini-game forum.

Controlled by the same player who controls The Allied Tribe.

I'm not as active as I used to be (probably active once every 3-7 days) as I'm spending a lot more time on more important things. This has nothing to do with why I'm not as active, but I'm sad because a lot of ideas I thought of but never used in an F7 thread (e.g. the life simulator and make a multiverse) were used. Next time I think of something I should probably use it immediately instead of waiting a few months and having somebody else take it.

The new Man becomes the leader of Random Nation (a military dictatorship) and creates an alliance of authoritarian nations to defeat the USA and EU. Random Nation declares war on the USA and a nuclear WW6 starts.

The new man observes the world as only a gigantic wasteland is left. Man uses Killer Queen: Bites The Dust to return in the moment he became a leader.

My name is Anarchisticstan, and I am a professional simp for Ganyu.

Random Nation, which is now powerful enough to control its own star system, begins expanding into the galaxy and discovers other life, which it promptly destroys. Random Nation also builds its own world-ending weapon and uses it to destroy the aliens.

Man, however, accidentally points the weapon at Earth.

Random Nation is destroyed by its own weapon accidentally. This also kills Man, along with most of Earth.

The micronation, called Micronation, actually only has one citizen (Man). Man, seeking new citizens, decides to attack the nomadic bands of people roaming Earth after the world-ending weapon decimates it. However, Man ends up killing most of them, and one month later the population has only grown to 50.
