AN: National Liberal Party.

BN: If you choose a party with factions (i.e. Liberal, SDP, or National), perhaps also say what faction you would most align with/vote for.

If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.

AN: Wednesday Liberals (Liberal Party), New Democrats (Social Democratic Party) and/or New Conservatives (National Party)

BN: Since I have both parliamentary parties and extra-parliamentary parties, please pick one parliamentary party and one extra-parliamentary party. Maybe even add more (if you want to).

Freddy Engelford

"I need to make a choice in party politics? And two-party politics? Surely the Revolution is evidence enough of my thoughts on— fine. Well, naturally I will have to look to the Labor Party for some kind of refuge from the bourgeoisie imperialism of the Patriotic Party. Democratic Socialism is probably as good as it's going to get as far as factions go, but it's a teeny minority, isn't it? I just know it."

BN: As Classroom 3-B does not have parties, please choose between the factions of the three leaders: Freddy, Francine, and Jojo. (found in the factbook linked in the signature)

Most NS Stats and Policies are somewhat accurate to how I envision this nation, but please try to judge this nation primarily based on its factbooks.

This is my attempt to write a nation that embodies my political views, but is also played realistically, showcasing both the upsides and downsides of my ideal system. Most factbooks are still an active WIP, so let me know if there's anything you think can be improved upon
